REFLECTION

Jesus brought the wine of God's love into the world.

Everywhere he went the old was made new.

For the couple at Cana he changed water into wine.

For the widow of Nain he changed tears into joy.
For Zacchaeus he changed selfishness into love.
For the thief on Calvary he changed despair into hope.
And on Easter morning he changed death into life.
Lord, be present with us today and throughout our lives.
And when through human weakness
the wine of love is found wanting,
touch our hearts and strengthen our wills,
so that we may taste the wine of unselfish love.

Why I Love You

You come quietly into my private world and let me be.
You really try to understand me when I do not make much sense.

You don't take my problem from me, but trust me to deal with it in my own way.

You give me enough room to discover for myself why I feel upset, and enough time to think for myself what is best.

You allow me the dignity of making my own decisions even though you feel I am wrong.

You don't tell me that funny story you are just bursting to tell me.

You allow me to make my experience one that really matters.

You accept my gratitude by telling me that it is good to know I have been helped.

You grasp my point of view even when it goes against your sincere convictions.

You accept me as I am – warts and all.

You don't offer me religious solace when you sense I am not ready for it.

You look at me, feel for me and really want to know me.

You spend a short, valuable time with me and make me feel it is for ever.

You hold back your desire to give me good advice.
