*AIDS: A Priest's Testament***

We will have a special event on Tuesday 24th September at 8pm in Miltown Malbay Community Hall, we warmly welcome Bernard Lynch Ennis and part time resident in Bár Trá to speak. This compelling documentary shot for Channel 4 in the summer of 1987 tells the story of Fr. Bernárd Lynch and his ministry to people with AIDS in New York. The Irish born priest and psychotherapist was closely involved with the LGBT community and founded the first pastoral outreach to people with AIDS in the city. He was subsequently drafted onto the Mayor of New York's Task Force on AIDS. His ministry and his commitment to civil rights for LGBT people led him into conflict with the Catholic Church authorities as well as bringing him into the most harrowing situations; preparing young people for their untimely deaths. The documentary profiles the man, his ministry and the pressures that brought him close to the edge of his physical and spiritual limits. Followed by some input from Bernard and then some questions from the floor, all are welcome and admission is free.

REFLECTION: Open-Mindedness

Closed-minded people put others down,
Open-minded people are tolerant and understanding.
Closed-minded people cannot see the good
in people who disagree with them,
Open-minded people see some good in everyone.
Closed-minded people mind other people's business,
Open-minded people mind their own.
Closed-minded people are envious and jealous,
Open-minded people are contented and thankful.
Closed-minded people know it all,
Open-minded people realise how little we all know.
Closed-minded people belittle our cultures
and customs,
Open-minded people know the value of diversity.
Closed-minded people are suspicious and
overly cautious,
Open-minded people are trusting and adventurous.
Closed-minded people talk without thinking,
Open-minded people think before talking.
Closed-minded people think they are always right,
Open-minded people realise how easy it is to be wrong.
Closed-minded people like to judge others,
Open-minded people let others judge them.
