REFLECTION:

Helen Keller, who went blind and deaf at nineteen months, said: 'One day I asked a friend of mine who had just returned from a long walk in the woods what she had seen.

She replied, "Nothing in particular."

'How was this possible?' I asked myself, 'when I, who cannot hear or see, find hundreds of things to interest me through mere touch. I feel the delicate shape and design of a leaf. I pass my hands lovingly over the rough bark of a pine tree. Occasionally, I place my hand quietly on a small tree, and if I'm lucky, feel the happy quiver of a bird in full song. 'The greatest calamity that can befall people, is not that they should be born blind, but that they should have eyes, yet fail to see.'

COUNTY FINAL DOUBLE HEADER!!!
