Volunteer Ministries in the Killaloe Diocese: The Diocese of Killaloe will be launching its second Volunteer Ministry Training Programme this autumn. In the coming weeks people already involved in these ministries will speak at Masses across the diocese. The hope is that their testimonies will help raise awareness to the variety of ministries which people can volunteer for in their parish and pastoral area. Bishop Fintan will officially launch this ministry training later this autumn. For now all we ask is that you contemplate sharing their gifts and talents for the good of the faith community that we call the Diocese of Killaloe. For more information visit our website at: <https://www.killaloe-diocese.ie/our-diocese/lay-ministries/>

All Ireland Hurling Champions 2024

Whitney Heuston sang: "Give me one moment in time when I am more than I thought I could be." Last Sunday was a moment like that, the sheer joy that was released in all Clare people was palable for the great joy this team has brought us we say thanks. We are grateful for the players, mentors and Clare County Board. We are especially proud of our local players Aidan McCarthy and Conor Cleary for the wonderful performance they put in. There will be no winter in Clare after this!

Reflection

Discovering one's own riches

I LIVED ON THE shady side of the road and watched my neighbours' gardens across the way revelling in the sunshine.

I felt I was poor, and from door to door went in my hunger.

The more they gave me from their careless abundance the more I became aware of my beggar's bowl.

Till one morning I awoke from my sleep at the sudden opening of my door, and you came and asked for alms.

In despair I broke the lid of my chest open and was startled into finding my own wealth.
