This year marks 40 years of Kilrush Credit Union Volunteers in Quilty. The village of Quilty has always had a strong volunteer connection with Kilrush Credit Union, and the staff and Board of Directors are ever grateful for that support. From humble beginnings operating from a house in the village in 1984, a dedicated sub-office was opened in 1989. The original volunteers were Angela Cushen, John Joe Ryan, Cliona Pender and Maureen Moloney – they were joined some 20 years later by Betty Boyle and Collette Curtin. While the sub-office in Quilty closed at the outset of Covid, the relationship between KCU and these dedicated volunteers has remained. Both John Joe Ryan and Betty Boyle still hold full time volunteer positions within the credit union, and Angela Cushen's wise words remain our eternal staff motto: "If you can't be nice, be as nice as you can!"
From all of us at Kilrush Credit Union – Thanks for everything!

REFLECTION:

Jesus warned those who would lead the little ones astray, but he blessed those who care for them. One of the most touching things about children is their openness. But this same openness leaves them extremely vulnerable. They may not say much but they feel everything. They are like crocuses which appear in the open in February – frail, delicate, beautiful creatures – innocents abroad in an unpredictable climate. If they are embraced by the sun, they will bloom to their full potential. But if they are assailed by hail, they die a premature death. Love is to a child what sunshine is to a flower.

Best of luck to
